Find out how to FIX these and start making money—with FREE PUBLICITY today!

"Luck" – Where Preparation Meets Opportunity

Do you look at successful people and say, "They are so lucky"? Do you believe that people "luck" into things? Do you consider yourself "lucky" or "unlucky"? In this presentation, Serial Entrepreneur, Christina Daves, will share how it's not luck that helps you succeed but instead, always being prepared when opportunity knocks. She will share her personal journey and provide your audience with insight into how they can:

- Create a "lucky" mindset.
- Recognize, prepare for, and how to respond to the opportunities that are already knocking.

Stop Marketing Like It's 1999

1999 was a great year but many businesses are still marketing like it's 1999. Do you look at your phone as a vehicle for calling and texting or do you look at it as the most significant marketing tool you own? Christina will humorously share the history of marketing and bring people into the 21st Century with examples, tips, and easy ways to market businesses to today's audience.

All presentations are customized for your audience.
